

Arkwright Lodge No. 1495

Who are we?
Arkwright Lodge is one of the older Lodges in the Province of Derbyshire, being consecrated in 1874, it met at the Bath Terrace Hotel, Matlock Bath on the Friday after the full moon of every month. The lodge has had several homes finally ending up at the Freemasons Hall Belper

What we do?
We are a small friendly Lodge helping members to enjoy Freemasonry steeped in Ritual, we are also involved with several charities.

Why join us?
A small friendly Lodge steeped in history, the right mix of brethren from senior rank to new members, a lodge that will enable your Masonic career to grow at your own pace whilst giving you the tools you require to make this happen.
